

FURTHER INFORMATION

Prisoners in Arcady exhibition

By far the most detailed account of the German internees at Berrima in World War 1 is the book Prisoners in Arcady by John Simons (Bowral 1999) which is available at the museum for $30.00, or by mail order (allow $ 11 postage).

Berrima District Historical & Family History Society
PO BOX 131
MITTAGONG NSW 2575

- A comprehensive review of the experiences of German internees across Australia can be found at www.migrationheritage.nsw.gov.au/objects-through-time/essays/1914-1918

- Historians writing on the Germans in Australia during WW1 include;

Coupe, S. & Andrews, M.
Was it only Yesterday? Australia in the Twentieth Century World, Longman Cheshire, Sydney, 1992.

Fischer, G.W. & Helmi, N.
Internment at Trial Bay during World War One,
unpublished thematic history,
MHC & NPWS, 2004.

Fischer, G.W. Enemy Aliens, QUP, 1989.

- For a descriptive listing of the internee- made items on display in the Berrima Museum go to;

<http://www.migrationheritage.nsw.gov.au/exhibitions/objectsthroughtime/?key=Collection&s=Berrima>